Dear Mr. Dulles:

Enclosed are your Invitational Travel Orders and information sheets concerning your trip to the Pacific Proving Ground.

The aircraft, whose exact designation will be given to your office as early as possible, is tentatively scheduled to leave Washington, D. C., on June 18, 1956, and should return about June 26. It is expected that the party will spend four or five days at the Proving Ground.

Sincerely yours,

Alfred D. Starbird
Brigadier General, USA
Director of Military Application
